To Whom it may Concern,

We have been working with Shaun Harris and Rose City Labels since we began bottling in 2011. They were highly recommended from others in our industry, and we have had ample opportunity to found out for ourselves why. The quality of their labels is top-notch, but that is actually secondary to their level of service. Because of Shaun's attention to detail, we have been alerted to errors within our own graphics, saving us time, money, and embarrassment. As a small, slightly understaffed brewery, we have occasionally, accidentally, waited until the last possible minute to place orders for our labels, with a bottling deadline looming large. Shaun has bent over backwards to print and deliver our orders within those ridiculously small time frames. We are frequently courted by other label companies, receiving expensive label portfolios on a near-weekly basis. Nothing any other company could offer us compares to the quality and service we receive from Shaun and Rose City.

Cheers!
